

Authors of Book Articles

Many people, in one way or another, made the production of this book a reality. Some wrote or co-wrote articles, others undertook research, a number agreed to be interviewed, many more provided relevant written material from the past, while photographs came from many sources. Pertinent information was also provided verbally. It is not possible here to acknowledge everybody involved, by name. However, every input was valuable and helped to make the book what it is.

The names that follow are of those who wrote, co-wrote and who are known to have significantly assisted in writing the articles contained in this book. Names include the authors – some now deceased – of a number of previously published articles and such-like, which are substantially or wholly reproduced in this book.

We apologise to anybody whose name has been inadvertently omitted.
